

Elect to End Hunger and Poverty

A PRESENTATION ON THE CAMPAIGN TO END THE CRIMINALIZATION OF POVERTY AND HOW YOU CAN HELP.

Wednesday, March 28th 6:00 - 7:30 pm

2315 K Street, Sacramento - Upstairs above Sugar Plum Vegan Cafe

Come hear an inspiring presentation by Food Not Bombs co-founder Keith McHenry and watch a video about the movement in Africa. Learn how you can get involved.

Most people would elect to end hunger & poverty, but many elected officials have another agenda; cutting social services while transferring our tax dollars to wealthy military contractors & their corporate friends. While they cut social services like welfare, food stamps, education, health care & other basic necessities, they pass laws against the poor.

Food Not Bombs is responding to this crisis by preparing & sharing vegan food with the hungry in nearly 1,000 communities. This presentation will inspire you & your friends to join the Food Not Bombs movement and help organize, implement and feed the global campaign to end hunger and poverty. Copies of Keith's new book "Hungry for Peace" will be available at the presentation.
