

The 30th Anniversary Food Not Bombs Presentation

Your Club Can Host A Food Not Bombs Presentation At Your School.

Food Not Bombs co-founder Keith McHenry can give a presentation on your campus about the 30 year history of the movement and the many things it has accomplished around the world. Keith can also show a dvd about his work in Africa and talk about how to get involved with Food Not Bombs. Keith has spent over 500 days in jail for feeding the hungry. Amnesty International declared him a "Prisoner of Conscience" and worked for his unconditional release. Today Food Not Bombs is a global movement sharing vegan food with the hungry and working for peace, social justice and a sustainable future in over 1,000 cities. Keith has volunteered with Food Not Bombs groups in Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia, the Americas and the Middle East and will share his experiences of cooking and sharing food the hungry.
